

Pathway School of Worship Program Details

The Pathway School of Worship exists to equip worship leaders and musicians through the combination of God's Word, music, and the arts and to prepare them to present an excellent offering of praise and worship to our King.

When and Where

The Pathway School of Worship runs from Sunday, February 18 to Sunday, May 6. The School of Worship will meet Sunday after church from 12:00-1:00 pm in various locations on the Pathway Church campus.

Music Classes Offered

These classes will meet once a week for half an hour. The classes will be taught by people from Pathway's Worship Ministry (high school and older). Participants must be in 3rd-8th grade to take these classes and possess the necessary instrument.

Guitar - This class goes over the fundamentals of playing guitar in a worship band. These fundamentals include correct guitar playing, theory, chords, reading music, etc. The students will also take what they learn and prepare for playing worship songs.

Piano/Keyboard - This class goes over the fundamentals of playing piano in a worship band. These fundamentals include piano proficiency, rhythm training, theory, chords, reading a lead sheet, etc. The students will also take what they learn and prepare for playing worship songs.

Drums - This class goes over the fundamentals of playing drums in a worship band. These fundamentals include proper drum technique, rhythm, dynamics, fills, etc. The students will also take what they learn and prepare for playing worship songs.

Bass - This class goes over the fundamentals of playing bass in a worship band. These fundamentals include bass techniques, rhythm, chord patterns, reading music, etc. The students will also take what they learn and prepare for playing worship songs.

Vocals - This class goes over the fundamentals of singing in a worship band. These fundamentals include melody, harmony, rhythm, leading vocals, background vocals, etc. The students will also take what they learn and prepare for singing worship songs.

Worship Training Classes

The classes will be taught by the pastoral staff and some of the members in the Worship Ministry. The students will be learning how to pursue authenticity, excellence and purpose in worship.

Class Rates

Classes are $60 per month or $165 for the semester. All classes are 1 hour per week and consist of both music and worship training. A monthly payment is due at the beginning of every month. You can turn in a payment to the Church Office or online at pathwayonline.com/schoolofworship.

If you sign up for the Spring 2018 semester and make a full semester payment by November 24, 2017, the cost will be $135. After November 24, the cost will return to $165 for the semester. You can turn in a payment to the Church Office or online at pathwayonline.com/schoolofworship.

Sign up

The student and parent will fill out the Pathway School of Worship registration form and turn the form in to the Church Office or Worship Pastor Eric Hanson with either the semester payment or the first monthly payment.
